

Ken Wirth

Chief Sales Officer

«For an enthusiastic customer, no effort is too great. For me, the surprise and recognition when something unexpected happens to a customer are a wonderful experience every day.»

Ken Wirth (born 1970) has been Chief Sales Officer of JobCloud AG since July 2019.

Before, he worked for XING E-Recruiting GmbH & Co. KG, where he had been responsible for business customer sales and 1st level support as Director Account Management & Customer Relations since April 2015. Prior to that, Ken Wirth worked for Microsoft Deutschland GmbH and Microsoft Österreich GesmbH in various sales and sales management positions. Among other things, he built up sales for medium-sized companies in Germany, led the German Microsoft Business Solutions team and was responsible for Microsoft Business Solutions in Austria.

He studied business administration at the VWA in Munich.

Ken Wirth lives with his wife and son in Munich.
